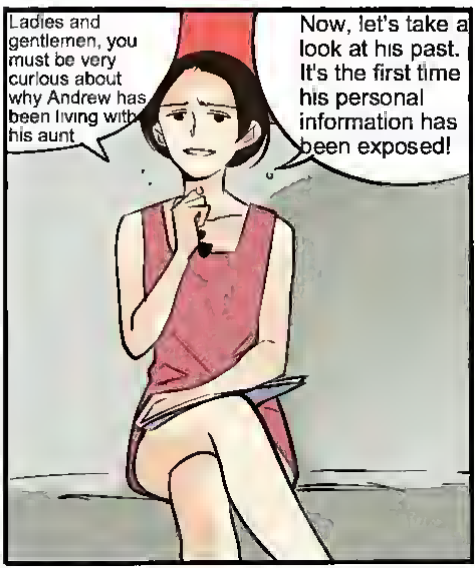
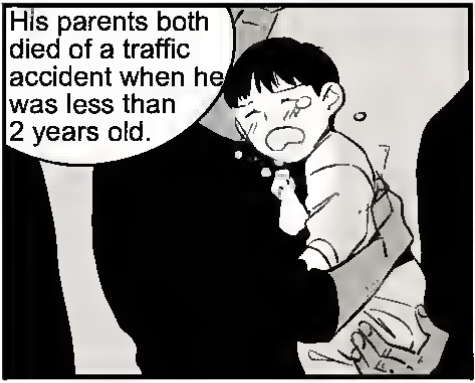
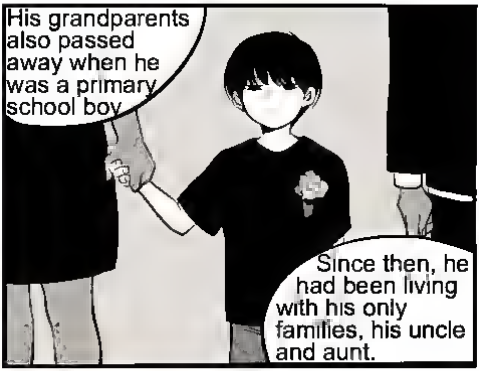
Okay, let me show you my ultimate skill! I promise I'll make you cry!



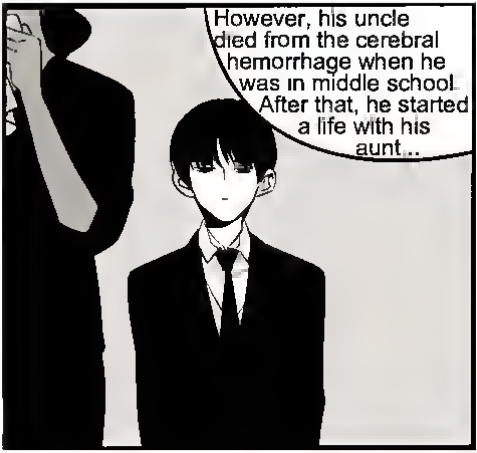
Ladies and gentlemen, you must be very curious about why Andrew has been living with his aunt.
Now, let's take a look at his past. It's the first time his personal information has been exposed!



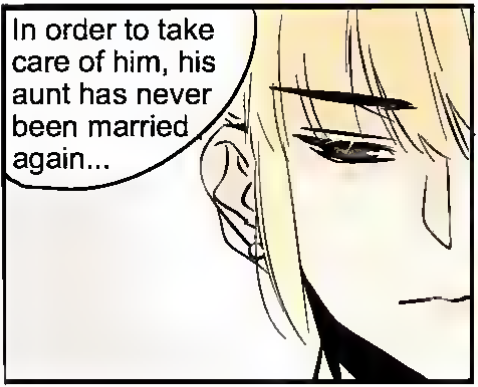
His parents both died of a traffic accident when he was less than 2 years old.



His grandparents also passed away when he was a primary school boy.
Since then, he had been living with his only families, his uncle and aunt.



However, his uncle died from the cerebral hemorrhage when he was in middle school. After that, he started a life with his aunt...



In order to take care of him, his aunt has never been married again...

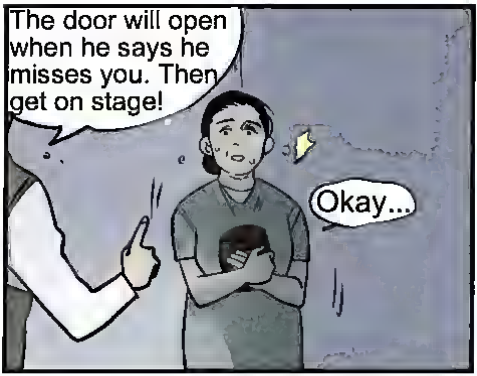
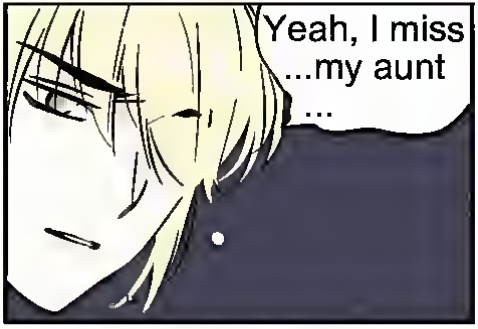
Gloomy music starts! Let his aunt go on stage!



The door will open when he says he misses you. Then get on stage!
Okay...

Do you miss her?



Yeah, I miss ...my aunt ...

Will she show up behind that door later?
I hope not, you won't get such an old fashioned idea.
Your programme won't be so stupid, right?
